

"I greatly appreciate the opportunity to serve on the Steering Committee for Emerging Leaders because it allows me to represent my organization in a professional, collaborative, and productive way. I learn so much from interacting with my fellow members—other young professionals from different companies and backgrounds, sharing experiences and insights on how we can make our community a better place."

—REANA SHAH

Affinity group members create lasting community change through leadership, career growth, and connections. When you merge the professional with the personal, you build your brand and forge a legacy for the future, making an everlasting impact on the San Diego region.

UNITED WAY AFFINITY GROUPS

"Women United is an amazing group of powerful women driving change in our community. Our annual gifts collectively fund educational initiatives that improve the lives of women and children in the San Diego Region. We truly see the impact of our philanthropic dollars at work through special initiatives and programs."
