United Way
of San Diego County

Since 1920, UWSD has worked in alignment with partners to address the inequities in our region and help underserved communities.

Without United Way, the work would be done by individual programs and not as a collaborative ... relationships would not have been built, nor as much quality work produced.

The challenge is identifying the sustainable, long-term goals we want to achieve and reaching them together.

In the past, many organizations worked independently on similar goals, but now were aligning our efforts together to maximize the impact.

Alone we can do so little, together we can do so much.
